

Samuel Raia
Co-Founder, Homes Fit for Heroes
USSOCOM Patriot Award Recipient
Board Member

Samuel is a Co-President of RCM, Co-Manager of RPM and a Managing Director and Vice President of RPC and along with Lawrence C. Raia, co-manages the day to day operations of the firm. He also is a member of the RPC Board of Directors. Samuel has over 20-years of experience in the real estate industry and has completed more than $1.5 billion in real estate transactions. Prior to joining RPC, he was a Director of Asset Management for Prudential Real Estate Investors, the real estate investment management business of Prudential Financial. In this capacity Samuel had primary asset management responsibility for the Real Property Partnership; a mixed asset portfolio consisting of 20 properties valued in excess of $220 million. Prior to joining Prudential he was a Senior Associate in the New York office of PricewaterhouseCoopers' Real Estate Group providing audit and business advisory services. Samuel holds a B.S. in Management with a focus on Accounting and a B.A. in Theology from Boston College as well as an M.S. in Real Estate Development, Renovation and Rehabilitation from the Schack (formerly Silverstein) Real Estate Institute at New York University. Samuel was a member of the Boston College Track and Field team all four years and holds the all-time school record in the Javelin throw. He serves his community as President and co-founder of Homes Fit For Heroes. HFFH provides free, furnished apartments to wounded U.S. Special Operations service members and their families while they are recovering from severe injuries.