

Todd Keirstead
Golf Entertainer
Founder, TK Inspire
Board Member

“Golf is more than a game, golf has the power to open the mind to what is possible.”

Todd Keirstead is one of the world best golf entertainers in the game. Todd Keirstead has been voted Trick Shot of the Year on the Golf Channel and has been on CTV Sports Plays of the Year. With the amazing shots that Todd is able to execute he has also been featured on ESPN, Sports Illustrated, ESPN, TSN and TMZ.

Throughout the years he has had the wonderful opportunity of performing his Instructional Entertainment Demonstration all over the world including Asia, Europe, deep inside the Arctic Circle, to most of the Caribbean, United States and Canada. He has entertained and have helped raise millions of dollars for different corporate, charity and celebrity golf tournaments and the response has been overwhelming.

Through golf entertainment, Todd has become one of the world leaders in the inclusion and diversity. He has inspired thousands with his vision that anyone can play golf, no matter what their circumstance. He has spoken to 32 National PGA's on the importance of the involvement of individuals of all abilities to the game of golf.

Todd has shown that the great game of golf can be a valuable tool in building confidence and self-esteem where it has wavered or disappeared for individuals who have suffered not only physical injuries but also psychological injuries in the theatre of war.

As a long-standing PGA Member, Todd provides the proper mechanics and techniques needed to play the game in an adaptive way, showcasing an individual's abilities rather than focusing of their disabilities.

In 2017, Toronto was awarded the Invictus Games. It was here that Todd was asked to be the Competition Supervisor. Todd had the opportunity to be immersed with 550 ill and injured soldiers from 17 countries. At these games Todd had the privilege of spending time with Prince Harry discussing the benefits of the sport of golf for our wounded warriors. Todd was later chosen to have a supervisor role in the 2019 Warrior Games in Tampa, Florida.

“My vision is to ignite the passion in individuals and to transcend personal boundaries both on and off the fairway”, says Keirstead.
